Effect of Domestic Violence on Children

Thursday 25th April 2019, 10:00 to 14:00

Domestic abuse can have a real and lasting impact on children; it can impact on our relationships with them and how we parent them. Today we'll be looking carefully at what these effects can be, so that we can best support our children.

Letting Go of Shame

Thursday 2nd May 2019, 10:00 to 14:00

Feelings of shame and guilt are very common in women affected by domestic abuse. It can be helpful to understand these feelings, and look at ways of moving towards forgiving and accepting ourselves.

Healing from Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder

Thursday 9th May 2019, 10:00 to 14:00

What is PTSD and what are its effects? Suffering from PTSD can include experiencing flashbacks, nightmares, panic attacks, insomnia, intrusive disturbing thoughts, and other symptoms. Understanding that you may be living with PTSD can help with the healing process.

Coping with Depression and Suicidal Feelings

Thursday 16th May 2019, 10:00 to 14:00

Many women affected by domestic abuse suffer from feelings of depression, and can sometimes feel their only escape is through suicide. We will explore how to be more compassionate and caring to ourselves, when we might be living with depression or suicidal feelings and how to find appropriate support.

Coping with Anxiety and Stress

Thursday 6th June 2019, 10:00 to 14:00

Living with domestic abuse and its long term effects and daily struggles, including ongoing court cases, child contact issues etc. is extremely stressful. In this workshop we will look at what stress is, how it can affect us emotionally and physically, and look at tools to help us cope.

Dealing with Our Emotions: Grief, Anger and Sadness

Thursday 13th June 2019, 10:00 to 14:00

Sometimes our emotions can be so overwhelming that making sense of them feels almost impossible. In this workshop we will be looking at what these emotions are all about and how to place them into a wider context. Hopefully, in this way, you will find your own way to make sense of them when they are triggered.

Coping with Eating Disorders and Addictive or Compulsive Behaviour

Thursday 20th June 2019, 10:00 to 14:00

In this workshop we will look at eating disorders and other addictive behaviours, including their link to the experience of domestic violence and abuse. By increasing your awareness, you will be able to understand yourself better.

Overcoming Low Self-Esteem and Making Boundaries

Thursday 27th June 2019, 10:00 to 14:00

What does self-respect look like? The focus of this workshop is on learning about valuing and being kind to yourself as a woman affected by domestic abuse. Together we will explore the impact of domestic abuse on self-esteem and confidence.

“These workshops help consolidate my experience in my mind, help me think over things in my head and help me work through my emotions and experiences. The approach was very grounded, down to earth and so very supportive.”

“The workshops helped me to feel empowered that I could do something to take charge of my situation.”
