

woman's Trust

recovery from domestic abuse

17th January –21st March 2025

Self-Development Workshops for Young Women aged 18-25 years

Fridays between 2.30pm - 4pm, at a venue near Parsons Green station

A SPACE TO INSPIRE

CREATIVITY, REFLECTION and HEALING

For young women who self-identify as being at risk of domestic abuse, or have previously experienced domestic abuse at home and/or in intimate relationships

As part of the Maia & Lift programme, funded by the London Violence Reduction Unit

Details of programme overleaf

To get the most out of these workshops, please do try and attend all of them

Details of the programme (2.30pm- 4pm, near Parsons Green station):

17th January:

All About Me! Exploring my Identity

24th January:

What is Within? Exploring Thoughts, Feelings & Behaviours

31st January:

Building Bridges: Trust & Resilience

7th February:

Real Talk! Navigating the impact of abuse & trauma together

14th February:

Empowerment through Awareness. Red Flags vs Healthy Relationships

28th February:

My Comfort Zone! Defining Boundaries & Self-care

7th March:

Doing Me! My Body & Sexuality

14th March:

My Journey, My Future! Embracing Change & Possibility

21st March:

Rising Strong! Celebrating Growth & Moving Forward

If you are an organisation referring on behalf of the young woman, please email the completed referral form to office@womanstrust.org.uk.

If you are self-referring, please email us stating your name, telephone number, and that you would like to register for the above workshops, or call us on 020 7034 0303